Hope for Humanity A Word of Welcome

Good morning and Welcome to Park Church as we gather on the Sunday of the Coronation Weekend to again give our thanks to God as we Worship together. It is always our hope and intention that you will feel the warmth of our welcome and be able to quickly feel at home with us especially if you are a newcomer in the midst. The Hymns that we sing, are intended to encourage us in our faith alongside the reflection from God's Word which hopefully cheers the soul uplifting us with that sense of God's presence with us.

Please note the information below for our Coronation Lunch. For those who are rushing away after the service, please know that our prayer is that you know God's Blessing in the coming week.

Calum D. Macdonald

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in."

(Matthew 25 v 35)

As so many still continue to struggle with the current economic crisis, we continue to support our neighbours in Carnwadric Church as they perform this sterling work reaching out to those who struggle to make ends meet at times. This story of need locally will continue and so we look to follow through that Christian mandate to demonstrate God's Love in this Act of Christian Service.

Calum D. Macdonald

We look forward to meeting immediately after the service to celebrate the King's Coronation with what began as a bit of cake after the service but has now mushroomed into something more of a Coronation Luncheon. My thanks to all who have helped pull this together, from the Sunday School as well as our willing church volunteers who, as always, are the ones who make things happen.

It is with sadness that I announce to you the death of one of our Members , Mr Eric Rahim, who died peacefully at home in the early evening of Tuesday 2nd May. Arrangements have yet to be fully confirmed but it is anticipated that there will be a service here in Park Church on Saturday 13th May before going on to Linn Crematorium for a service of Committal. The timing of the services have still to be which has still to be finalized and we should be able to confirm this on Wednesday morning. In the meantime, please uphold Eric's family in your prayers at this time.
