Good Morning,

Welcome to Worship and we especially want to assure Rev. Jan Matheson of a warm welcome as she leads the service today. While Wilma and I enjoy this break I have arranged Pastoral cover to be available through Rev. Jim Gemmell of Carnwadric Church. You can make contact with him by email or phone and if you need his contact details these can be had from our Session Clerk, Mr Bert Dickov.

Enjoy this time with Jan and Wilma and I will look forward to hearing how everyone got on upon my return. As always - there will be opportunity to spend time over tea and coffee after the service to which of course, any and all are invited.

With Best Wishes

Calum D. Macdonald

As always, you have our heartfelt thanks for your continued support of this vital foodbank helping so many people and families from one week to the next.

Junior Praise 115
I Sing a Song of the Saints of God

1. I sing a song of the saints of God, patient and brave and true,
who toiled and fought and lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew.
And one was a doctor, and one was a queen,
 and one was a shepherdess on the green:
they were all of them saints of God, and I mean,
 God helping, to be one too.

2. They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and God's love made them strong;
and they followed the right, for Jesus' sake,
 the whole of their good lives long.
And one was a soldier, and one was a priest,
 and one was slain by a fierce wild beast:
and there's not any reason, no, not the least,
 why I shouldn't be one too.

3. They lived not only in ages past;
 there are hundreds of thousands still;
the world is bright with the joyous saints who love to do Jesus' will.
You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea,
in church, or in trains, or in shops, or at tea;
for the saints of God are just folk like me,
 and I mean to be one too.
